University of Miami
7-day Intensive Spanish Program
Frequently Asked Questions = FAQs

Q: Is this course for me?

Absolutely. The short-term commitment and dynamic atmosphere keeps you on task and enjoying the course despite the intensity of the schedule.

Q: Where does the program take place?

The University of Miami Intensive Spanish Program is held on our Coral Gables campus. The University of Miami’s main campus is located in the city of Coral Gables, in Miami-Dade County. Here, you can take advantage of the world-famous climate and attractions that make South Florida such a unique place to live and learn. Enthusiasts of sports, arts and the subtropical environment will all find something within driving distance of the University.

Q: Who are my classmates?

Business and medical professionals, government and educational administrators, teachers, world travelers. The only requirement is a desire to speak Spanish and study its customs and culture.

Q: What will I learn?

After completing our first level, you will be able to speak on concrete topics, give autobiographical information, understand and give directions, handle numbers and generally survive in a social situation!

In our second level, you will receive a thorough review of the basics and move on to more advanced structures including the imperfect and subjunctive. Fluency at this level will require a combination of idiomatic expressions and core competencies in Spanish.

In our advanced level, you will briefly review the more advanced aspects of grammar and transition to more complex levels of expression.

Q: What is the daily schedule like?

8:30 – 9:00am  Continental Breakfast
9:00 – 9:50am  Master class
10:00 – 11:50am  Focused Oral Practice
12:00 – 12:55pm  Lunch as a group
1:00 – 1:50pm  Master class
2:00 – 3:50pm  Focused Oral Practice

Q: I am from out-of-town. Is there housing available?

Housing is available at local hotels located in nearby historic Coral Gables. Rates are available upon request.
Q: Is Miami a good place to learn and practice my Spanish?
Of course! Miami is a natural environment to practice your newly acquired or improved language. The high degree of cultural Hispanic diversity offers you an opportunity to explore the Spanish-speaking world without leaving the U.S.
